

FROM CHURCH TO CHURCH, AMEN!

AMEN to our Wesley Nurses who emphasized Heart Health in the month of February.

Taking Blood Pressures after worship

AMEN to Los Fresnos UMC who worked with all denominations in the community to form Los Fresnos Christian Youth Fellowship. They also have a confirmation class that includes neighborhood youth.

AMEN to the McAllen District who hosted at least 10 Nomad Units this year.

The McAllen District Office is in Harlingen next to GEMS Pancake House.

AMEN to Trinity UMC for stepping up their stewardship even in these tough times. Their pastor gives credit to meaningful worship where “God broke through and moved the people.” Trinity also is experiencing meaningful meetings that people actually like to go to. She credits the good Christian Leadership training the church received at Mathis where Worshipful Meetings was taught.

AMEN to Kingsville FUMC whose pastor modeled invitational behavior and invited his water aerobics class to church. They had 35 visitors on one Sunday. 15 were from water aerobics.

AMEN to Raymondville FUMC who’s UMW has had a college student loan program for forty years. They lend $500.00 per semester interest free.

AMEN to Zapata UMC's Annis Hicks for volunteering to coordinate help for Zapata school children in the purchase of school uniforms and other items important for school.

AMEN to Harlingen FUMC for reminding us to teach children to love all people. Iris Saenz, director of children's ministries for FUMC and its campuses, NuLife and Valley Praise, suggests we let our children explore differences, interact with kids from other cultures and encourage them to look for positive qualities in people.

AMEN to Harlingen FUMC for planning a youth mission trip to improve the health and safety of Guatemalans by building stoves for people who usually cook over open fires.

AMEN to McAllen FUMC for being invitational and inclusive by offering Lenten studies set up in homes in different areas of the city at different times of the day.

AMEN to Port Isabel FUMC for their Adopt-A-Family ministry. This ministry works with two elementary schools that provide the list of the most needy families. These families are not only provided with food and toys at holiday times, but also get vouchers for shoes and uniforms.

AMEN to Edinburg FUMC for funding a water well with their Christmas offering. The water well was built for a kindergarten in a poor village in Chiapas, Mexico.

Edinburg FUMC donated money to provide this water well

AMEN to Edinburg FUMC for hosting a breakfast for local firefighters. They also collected bears and other stuffed animals for the firefighters to give to victims of fires and for Estrella House, a facility for battered children.
